Step 1		Step 2		Step 2			Step 4
Initial themes		Identifying units of meaning	Condensation of analysis: one main theme: The ideal of being beneficent toward the patient Maim theme			The results of
Being and acting beneficently Equality issues with the situations Transgressing boundaries Special situations				Ethical issues related to equality Feeling obligated to do one's best for the patient	Being equal partners		the analysis
					Patient advocacy
					Having an unreflected role
					It is my duty to do my best
			Transgressing boundaries	Further education is the road to achieving and maintaining professional
	_			Feeling forced to circumvent the rules	_
	4			Being respectful of patient autonomy	7
Information	ĺ			Being beneficial by telling or not telling the truth
					Being in special situations – insurance claims
					To be or not to be obliged to document the process
					The dilemma of being beneficent versus doing business
			Ü	Transgressing bodily boundaries
					Transgressing cultural boundaries
					Transgressing privacy		