

Name: Boy in Bangladesh

Date

Health condition:

	Body, functions and structure	Activities and Participation
According to client		Slow writing, with left hand Cannot do regularly exercises Active in disability group
According to fieldworker/therapist	Right hand not control Balance in sitting good, but not in walking	Can walk independently, is independent in all ADL Does most things with left hand, but slower compared to peers. Independent in ambulation.

	Personal factors	Environmental factors
According to client	Parents cannot fight alone	Difficult to access rights Superstition People think we are a curse People embarrass us Society is not educated about disability Media is not playing a role in awareness raising Needs extra time and support for exam
According to fieldworker/therapist	Strong and motivated boy Normal (or high) intelligence	Family supports the boy in schooling  Not clear if he gets the extra time and support for exams.